MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Conference [REDACTED] - JOT Program

REFERENCE : OTR Notice [REDACTED] dated 10 April 1964

1. On Friday, 12 June 1964, a conference was held [REDACTED] for the purpose of discussing the present JOT Training Program (Operations Course content) in relation to National Security Action Memorandum 283, U. S. Overseas Internal Defense Training Policy and Objectives (Ref). Those attending were: [REDACTED]

It was the consensus of the participants that the curriculum of the OC as presently constituted contains many of the basic elements required by the NSAM; however, some of the material is not necessarily identified as such. The main requirement is to shift the emphasis of certain existing material and to relate certain other items to the Agency's Internal Defense role, although certain new coverage will be added by SIC, HT/OS and [REDACTED]

2. Although it was stated that additional time can be made available if the Internal Defense coverage is found lacking, by introducing the measures listed below, adequate steps can be taken to rectify existing deficiencies:

a. Headquarters Training: Through the one-week Introduction to the Clandestine Services, students will become acquainted with the over-all policy considerations and mechanism. Emphasis will

(3) Following the completion of Mr. [REDACTED] survey of the present OC curriculum, additions or changes in the Internal Defense coverage will be recommended. Suggestions were made to introduce certain case studies and problems, building on the SIC coverage of the "Critical Countries". The objective of the OC phase of the Internal Defense coverage will be to teach the manner in which CIA implements Internal Defense policy through its operations in the field.
